Neuenheimer Feld Campus
Im Neuenheimer Feld 130.2
69120 Heidelberg
- Registration for the working group of EMSCI
- please by April 30 at the latest - via the congress website www.dmgp-kongress.de
- How to get there By car coming from the highway
...from Frankfurt or Karlsruhe (A 5), Saarbrücken and Mannheim (A 656)
...from the direction of Heilbronn, Stuttgart or Munich (A6)
From the A5 highway at the Heidelberg interchange or from the A6 at the Mannheim interchange, take the A656 towards Heidelberg. At the end of the highway, turn left towards Neuenheim/Universitätsklinikum, then right onto Vangerowstraße. Get into the right-hand lane of the two directional lanes. Drive under the Neckar bridge (Ernst-Walz-bridge). Then immediately turn right onto the bridge and cross the Neckar; get into the left-hand lane. After the bridge, immediately turn left into Jahnstraße, which bends to the right after 50 meters and then immediately to the left again. Drive through the barrier by taking a transit ticket (free of charge), follow the course of Kirschnerstraße and follow the right-hand bend onto Hofmeisterstraße until you reach the barrier. Drive through this barrier again with the same ticket. The two paid parking garages are located on the left-hand side. The addresses can also be entered directly into the navigation system.

With public transportation

Bus stop "Campus im Neuenheimer Feld", directly opposite the Marsilius Arkaden.
Direct bus lines 20, 28, 30 from the main station.

Parking lots

As described above, there are two paid parking garages available:

Parking garage Zoo

Tiergartenstraße 3 | 69120 Heidelberg

Parking garage University Hospital P160

Tiergartenstraße 1 | 69120 Heidelberg

Subsequent walk from the parking garages to the Marsilius Arkaden approx. 10 minutes.
