Arrival The Nottwil campus can be reached quickly and easily from all directions. Both by car and by public transport. You will find detailed directions enclosed.

Directions by train and bus

From Nottwil railway station - a ten-minute walk away - trains run every half hour to and from Lucerne and (via Sursee) to and from Basel, Bern, Geneva and Zurich.

The

Schweizer Paraplegiker-Zentrum (SPZ) and the Guido A. Zäch Institute (GZI) are also connected to the regional bus network with their own stop.

Directions by car

Nottwil is close to the A2 motorway (Basel-Lucerne).

From the Sursee exit, a signposted path leads to the SPC and the GZI. There is a multi-storey car park there with spaces available for a fee.

Parking spaces

There are two multi-storey car parks on the Nottwil campus. You can reach the SPC via car park A/B and the Hotel Sempachersee and Guido A. Zäch Institute via car park C/D. In addition, outdoor parking is available along Guido A. Zäch Strasse and at the military hospital. All parking options are subject to a charge.
